

Intercessions

29th September 2024

The Festival of Michael and All Angels

Pause for reflection as you offer the day to God.

As we rejoice in the gift of this new day, so may the light of your presence, O God, set our hearts on fire with love for you; now and forever.

Amen.

Intercessions for this Sunday received with thanks
from Geoff Dingle

Lord, be known in your church, for without you we have no message, we have no power.

Come fill us with your presence that we may proclaim your peace in your needy world.

Lord, make us aware, alert to your coming, that we may reveal your glory in your world.

We pray for those who walk in darkness, that they may see your light.

We remember those whose lives are clouded with troubles and pray that they may behold your glory.

Lord in your mercy.....

Come Lord, come down, come in, come among us.

Enter into our darkness with your light.

Come fill our emptiness with your presence.

Dispel the clouds and reveal your glory.

Come, refresh, renew restore your church.

Come Lord, come down, come in, come among us.

Lord in your mercy....

Come Lord, give peace to your world.

Dispel the clouds of war and violence, of calamity and disaster.

Let your power and glory be revealed to the nations.

Particularly we remember those suffering the ravages of war and violence in Ukraine, Gaza, Lebanon and Israel at this time.

Lord in your mercy.....

Come Lord, be known in our homes, that they may reflect your love.

Come Lord in our communities here in Eccleshall and Slindon and particularly those who worship at the Methodist Church and the Church of the Sacred Heart.

Help us to rejoice in each other's presence.

Make us fully aware of others and be sensitive to their needs.

Let us remember those who can no longer join in fellowship here with us and are confined to home,

Help us to recognise that they are still valued members of your church.

Lord in your mercy....

Come Lord to all who are unable to cope at this time,
to all who are weighed down with troubles.

We pray for all who are ill and for those who care for them.

We remember those whose lives are clouded with despair,

We pray for the depressed and the suicidal,

In a moments quiet let us remember friends and loved ones known personally who are suffering.

Lord in your mercy.....

Come Lord of our salvation, save us and we will be saved.

We pray for friends and loved ones departed and especially for those missing Eileen Gittins, a much loved and long standing member of your church in Eccleshall.

May she and all the departed now rejoice in the fullness of your presence and your glory.

Lord in your mercy....

Finally as we gaze on the portraits of Christ before us,

Let us remember the supreme sacrifice that he made for all who love him, so that we have the promise of eternal life and the end to suffering and strife when our time on earth is over.

Merciful Father.....
